FSSA ASEAN All Cap Fund

- The Fund invests primarily in equity or equity-related securities of companies that are, at the time of investment, listed, or have their registered offices in, or conduct a majority of their economic activity in member countries of the Association of South East Asian Nations ("ASEAN").

- The Fund invests in emerging markets which may have increased risks than developed markets including liquidity risk, currency risk/control, political and economic uncertainties, high degree of volatility, settlement risk and custody risk.

- Investing in small /mid-capitalisation securities may have lower liquidity and their prices are more volatile to adverse economic developments.

- The Fund's investments may be concentrated in a relatively small number of companies, single sector/country, small numbers of countries or specific region which may have higher volatility or greater loss of capital than more diversified portfolios.

- The Fund may use FDIs for hedging and efficient portfolio management purposes, which may subject the Fund to additional liquidity, valuation, counterparty and over the counter transaction risks.

- It is possible that a part or entire value of your investment could be lost. You should not base your investment decision solely on this document. Please read the offering document including risk factors for details.

Investment objective & strategy
