

Champion crowned at 2016-2017 BOC Life Hong Kong Premier League

7 May 2017

BOC Life has been the title sponsor of Hong Kong Premier League with the 3rd season kicked-off in last August and 11 teams competing in 110 matches.

The highly-anticipated final between Kitchee and Eastern was played on 6 May and attended by over 6,000 soccer fans. After a thrilling match, Kitchee scored 4-1 over Eastern and regained the championship which it lost in the last season.

Immediately after the match, Mr. Terry Lo, Chief Executive of BOC Life, and representatives of Hong Kong Football Association hosted the award presentation ceremony. Kitchee team was overjoyed with the triumph and cheered with the supporters after receiving the champion trophy.

The next season will start in September. Being the title sponsor, BOC Life will continue to support the development of local football and arouse public interest in this healthy sport.
