Notes:

The Policy Owner is subject to the credit risk of BOC Life. If the Policy Owner discontinues and / or surrenders the insurance plan in the early policy years, the amount of the benefit he / she will get back may be considerably less than the amount of the premium he / she has paid.

Risk Disclosure of RMB and USD Insurance:

RMB and USD policies are subject to exchange rate risk. The exchange rate between RMB and HKD or USD and HKD may rise as well as fall. Therefore, if calculated in HKD, premiums, fees and charges (where applicable), account value / surrender value and other benefits payable under RMB or USD policy will vary with the exchange rate. The exchange rate between RMB and HKD or USD and HKD will be the market-based prevailing exchange rate determined by BOC Life from time to time, which may not be the same as the spot rate of banks. The fluctuation in exchange rate may result in losses if a customer chooses to pay premiums in HKD, or requests the insurer to pay the account value / surrender value or other benefits payable in HKD, for RMB or USD policy. RMB Conversion Limitation Risk - RMB Insurance is subject to exchange rate fluctuations which may provide both opportunities and risks. The fluctuation in the exchange rate of RMB may result in losses in the event that the customer converts RMB into HKD or other foreign currencies. RMB is currently not fully freely convertible. Individual customers can be offered CNH rate to conduct conversion of RMB through bank accounts and may occasionally not be able to do so fully or immediately, for which it is subject to the RMB position of the banks and their commercial decisions at that moment. Customers should consider and understand the possible impact on their liquidity of RMB funds in advance.

Credit Risk:

Insurance contract is signed between customers and BOC Life. Therefore, customers are subject to the credit risk of BOC Life. Premiums paid by policy owner will become part of BOC Life. If BOC Life becomes insolvent or goes into liquidation or defaults on its obligations, customers may result in substantial losses.

Market and Interest Rate Risk:

The insurance plan is a life insurance product. Changes in market and interest rate risk borne by insurance company which will not affect the guarantee return of the policy.

Liquidity Risk:

To apply an insurance plan, customers have to pay premium for designated payment term(s). Customers should consider their affordability before applying an insurance plan.

Insurance plans offer protection for designated benefit term(s). Customers have to hold the insurance plan for the assigned period of time. If customers would like to surrender the insurance plan before maturity, the amount to be received may be significantly less than the premium paid. Therefore, customers should consider their liquidity needs before applying an insurance plan.

Other Key Risks:

- BOC Life shall not be liable to pay any Additional Accidental Death Benefit in respect of death of the Insured that is a direct or indirect result or consequence of, or directly or indirectly attributable to, any of the following:

- The Policy Owner should pay premium on time during the premium payment term. If the above requirement is not met, the policy surrender value and Death Benefit may be greatly reduced. It may result in lapse or termination of the policy if the required amount (such as premium) is not made before expiry of the grace period (if applicable) as prescribed by BOC Life. Nevertheless, it is subject to non-forfeiture provisions (if applicable). If the policy is terminated or lapsed due to non-payment of premium, the surrender value received by the Policy Owner may be less than the Total Premiums Paid and the Policy Owner will lose the insurance protection provided by the policy.
- Upon early surrender of the policy, the surrender value payable may be less than the Total Premiums Paid and may therefore result in losses.
- BOC Life may terminate the policy before the maturity date if any one of the following events occurs:
 - (i) the death of the Insured; or
 - (ii) BOC Life approves the Policy Owner's written request for surrender; or
